School board rejects liberal boy hair length rules

Canyon School Board members rejected Tuesday night a liberalized policy on boys' hair length and adopted a dress code which was in effect last year.

Board members took a hard line on the need for maintaining discipline in the schools and related the length of boys' hair to that need as they voted to retain a dress code which says boys' hair must be "well-groomed, clean and trimmed, the length to be above the collar in back, out of the eyes, and not to extend lower than the midpoint of the ear."

They rejected an alternate proposal from High School Principal John Sommer and Junior High Principal Dave Corley which would have stipulated only that boys' hair be well groomed and clean without specifying length.

Corley and Sommer recommended the stricter policy be retained even though they presented the more liberal policy as an alternate.

"We feel we could go either way on this," Sommer said in presenting the two proposals.

He told board members the more liberal proposal was an effort "to bring some things more up to date."

He said school administrators have not be completely successful in the past on enforcement of the hair length code for boys, and he reported that discussions with school administrators in schools where hair length is not regulated have said they have few problems with the more liberal policy.

Board President Tom Keeling told the principals he favors keeping the 1974-75 policy, but requiring teachers and staff members to become more involved in enforcement of the policy.

"I mean make it a requirement that if they don't turn a student in, then they should be reprimanded," he said.

Dr. Dudley Moore, board member, said he would prefer to be tougher on the hair length rather than more lenient.

"If you have education without discipline you're just lost," he said.

Keeling suggested that Supt. Jerry Jacobs make it clear at faculty meetings when school opens that teachers are to become involved in enforcing the dress code.

"I hate to see high-paid employees spend their time measuring hair lengths," Board member Ed Wieck said. "But, I agree there have to be rules and this is as much a part of education as anything."

"I don't see any point of fighting it for the years it's been fought and then backing down," Keeling said.

Jacobs backed retention of the old hair policy, saying discipline and rules were an important part of the education process.

After further discussion, Keeling asked Corley and Sommer for their recommendations.

They both recommended the hair and dress codes from last year be retained.

"Do you principals feel you can manage to get better cooperation out of your teachers?" Keeling asked.

"I intend to try," Corley said. Sommer concurred.

A motion by Moore to retain the old dress code passed with Wieck not casting a vote.

The dress code for the coming year will say:

BOYS — Wear sleeved shirts tucked in unless specifically made to be worn outside. Wear belts unless trousers made specifically to be worn without belt. Decorative patches on trousers considered in poor taste by the administration are prohibited. Hair must be well groomed, clean and trimmed, the length to be above the collar in back, out of the eyes, and not to extent lower than the midpoint of the ear. Sideburns are allowed so long as they do not extend below the ear and are well trimmed. Mustaches and beards are not acceptable. Wear shoes with socks. Shoes should not have metal cleats

Park project boosted by city and chamber

Local efforts to improve Canyon's parks and recreation facilities got two shots in the arm Monday night.

City commissioners voted to establish an advisory Park and Recreation Board and directors of the chamber of commerce a new park facility.

No members were named to the newly established park and recreation board during the city commission meeting.

Phil Langen, a chamber director and chairman of an ad hoc chamber committee studying parks in the city, said other directors agreed during a Monday night session that a full push should be continued toward improvement of parks and recreation facilities.

He said his ad hoc committee will continue pursuing funding for a new park, possibly just south of the current Conner Park, and will report back to the city commission on other site possibilities and funding sources.

The committee, he said, will look into the money needed for a new park, and will investigate whether a bond issue is the only feasible route for financing the park construction.

City commissioners during July allocated $10,000 from their 1975-76 budget for park upgrading at the request of Langen and his committee. They also appointed Langen to chair a new committee to continue studying the situation.

School district officials had pledged during the same month an equal amount for parks and had offered about 12 acres of land south of Canyon High School for use as a park facility.

Langen's chamber committee had worked up a proposed park which included the school acreage and land adjacent Tierra Blanca Creek south of Canyon.

The park and recreation board created by commissioners Monday night will consist of five persons and will have advisory powers only.

"The Park and Recreation Boards all have no official power, but it is an investigative and recommending board for the city," the ordinance reads.

The purposes of the board, according to the ordinance, are:

"a. To advise the City Commission on problems relating to parks and recreation and to recommend to the Commission such plans and programs as will best promote the parks and recreation programs of the City;

"b. To work in conjunction with the administrative staff of the City of Canyon in the development of a park and recreation program;

"c. To investigate and consult with any agency, public or private that may aid or assist the growth of City park and recreation facilities."

Cafeteria lunch fees hiked, money-short budget talked

Canyon School Board members examined in detail a $3.4 million budget for next year which will require a 7-cent tax increase and voted to increase school lunch prices by a nickel for junior high and high school students.

Business Manager Ronnie Wood told board members the preliminary budget he's prepared calls for a deficit of about $22,000 which will have to be paid from a hold-over balance of about $200,000.

The board will meet later this month to hold a public hearing on the final budget proposal and to set the tax rate for the coming year.

School Supt. Jerry Jacobs has been warning throughout the summer that a tax increase of about 7 cents is predicted. Current tax rate is $1.85 per $100 on 40 per cent of valuation.

Wood's budget proposal calls for revenue of $3,439,730, which compares with revenue for the 1974-75 school year of $2.9 million. Expenditures he anticipates to total $3,462,070, well over the 1974-75 expenditures of $2.9 million.

He said the school district will have a 16 per cent increase in revenue this year over last year and a 19 per cent increase in expenditures for the same period.

The bulk of the budget is for instructional purposes, including payroll and administration.

Board members voted to increase the price of school lunches for high school and junior high students who eat in school cafeterias for the coming year after reviewing a financial statement prepared by Wood which predicts a deficit in the cafeteria operating accounts.

Junior high meals will go from 65 cents to 70 cents each for the coming year and high school meals will go from 65 to 70 cents also.

Wood told the board the high school and junior high cafeterias are consistent money-losers while the elementary school cafeterias are consistent money-makers.

In other business, the board ap-

Pond still looking for McClendon

Randall County officials were still looking Wednesday for County Treasurer Bob McClendon.

"I don't know where he is," said County Judge Woody Pond, who had been instructed by county commissioners Monday to find McClendon and have him sign $79,000 in certificates of obligation to pay the contractor for July construction on the county's new South Amarillo annex.

McClendon was believed to be somewhere in Colorado, having left Canyon, according to Pond, July 29 and to return Monday.

During commissioners court Monday afternoon, McClendon, who has had almost monthly run-ins with commissioners since taking office in January, came under fire for leaving town on the first of the month when the certificates are to be signed for payment of the contractor.

"What do we do about the certificates?" Financial Advisor Bob Davis of Columbian Securities Corporation asked commissioners during the meeting.

"The county treasurer is not in the county today and he'll be back Monday," Judge Pond responded.

"We agreed we would make this payment," Commissioner Jim Fletcher said. "I suggest the commissioners court write the county treasurer to be on hand to take care of this obligation by the first of every month."

Davis told commissioners the absence of the treasurer works a hardship on the contractor, Panhandle Contractors and Engineers of Amarillo, which must pay its bills by the 10th of each month or lose discounts for early payment.

"This makes it bad on the contractor," Davis said.

"It's really inexcusable," Commissioner Paul Lindsey said. "It's an inexcusable thing."

"It's very embarrassing to Randall County," Fletcher said.

"He knows we must do this every first of every month," Davis said.

"We ought to authorize the judge to try to find his whereabouts and make arrangements for him to sign them," Lindsey suggested.

Lindsey put his suggestion in the form of a motion, which was unanimously passed, and Fletcher put his suggestion that commissioners pen a letter informing McClendon to be in the county on the first of every month in the form of a motion which also passed.

The county issues certificates of obligation, which are signed by the treasurer on the first Monday of each month. The certificates are accepted by First National Bank here which issues cash payments to the contractor for the work he's completed on the South Amarillo annex during the previous month.

In other business Monday, commissioners agreed with a suggestion from Fletcher that the county meet with Texas Highway Department officials and officials from the Amarillo and Canyon chambers of commerce to discuss allocation of funds for completion of Loop 335 which is to eventually surround Amarillo.

Fletcher said it would be advantageous to the county to ask the district engineer of the highway department in Amarillo to "nail down the exact route of Loop 335 in Randall County so it will be known to the public."

He said the commissioners and chamber officials should also encourage the highway department to fund the Randall County segment of the loop as soon as possible.

Fletcher said the purchase of right-of-way for the loop, a purchase the county must make from stockpiled funds, will become more burdensome as time goes on and inflation con-

Utilities law is not needed, company officials contend

Utility companies which serve Canyon clashed again Monday night with the city's engineer over need for a utility regulation ordinance, but commissioners stalled action on the proposed law until the objections could be put in writing.

Commissioners tabled further action on the ordinance which is proposed for adoption by Engineer Bill McMorries of Amarillo to await written objections from Pioneer Corporation.

The verbal objections were heard Monday night by commissioners as officials of Pioneer, which supplies the city's gas, and Southwestern Public Service Co., which supplies electricity, said a regulatory ordinance is not needed by Canyon.

Brac Biggers, regional manager for the electric company, said the ordinance proposed by McMorries was first drawn by the Texas Municipal League as a model for cities under state law which did not provide for a state-wide regulatory body.

With the advent in Texas of a utilities commission, he said, the ordinance for Canyon would not be necessary.

But, he said, in the event the Canyon commission feels a need for the ordinance, anyway, they should consider passage of three separate ordinances rather than one ordinance with each separate ordinance to refer to a

A dozen workers in the county clerk's office are spending the week in the courthouse basement to process about 30,000 letters to all Randall County taxpayers notifying them of a tax increase for the coming year. The letters offer taxpayers the opportunity to question the tax hike during a board of equalization meeting scheduled later this month. County commissioners hiked taxes during a recent meeting from $1.05 per $100 on 17 per cent valuation to 95 cents per $100 on 25 per cent valuation.

Fast-rising wheat prices to be avoided, prof. says

Area farmers may be concerned about low wheat prices, but they should also be concerned that prices don't rise too rapidly, a local agricultural economist cautioned this week.

Dr. Doug Williams, ag economist at West Texas State University, warned that a jittery Congress could take stern measures in controlling wheat exports should prices rise quickly and high within a short period of time.

"We have to have steady and orderly marketing," Williams cautioned. "If we have sharp price jumps then we'll get in trouble with Congress.

"We're dealing with a different Congress. The rural Congress is not there any more and we have to be cagey."

Williams said Congress, which is controlled by representatives of largely urban and consumer-oriented areas, "don't want food prices rising."

He predicted a slow gradual rise in prices through the summer as Russia comes back to purchase more wheat from this country's producers and said holding wheat for the best possible price would probably continue to be a wise move on the part of local farmers.

"Russia will have to buy from five to 10 million bushels of grain they cannot get elsewhere," he said. "But (the sales) will have to be on a gradual basis. They'll be back but we won't have the big sales made all at one time."

Drastic and rapid price rises for wheat might push Congress to export restrictions, Williams said, but it might also panic other foreign purchasers such as Japan.

Williams said producers should not expect to see the kind of price increases which followed the Russian wheat deal in 1973, because of the Congressional and consumer fears.

"If we're holding, that's good," he said. "It will pay them to hold, but don't expect to see drastic increases in prices."

Since the marketing season is still in full swing, Williams said there are factors other than the export market which could affect the price of wheat this summer.

He predicts the price of wheat will be stable for a short while and may not rise substantially during this marketing season.

"We have to be realistic," he said. "The large profits that were

Winged critters swarm in city

Millions of tiny, winged greenbugs — the aphids which are making things miserable for county maize farmers this year — swarmed into the city during the post-dawn hours Monday and Tuesday.

The relatively rare migration into Canyon startled some early-risers who found breathing difficult in some areas as the bugs took to the air in the calm of early morning.

West Texas State University Biologist Derl Brooks confirmed Tuesday the insects are the same ones which annually infest maize crops in the Panhandle and South Plains areas.

Brooks said the greenbugs migrate from field to field in the area and prefer to migrate by wing on calm days.

The winged greenbugs seen by local city residents early Monday and Tuesday were only a portion of the greenbug infestation in the surrounding countryside, he said.

Mature female greenbugs reproduce by internal budding and their offspring are all female, he said, some with wings and some without wings.

Those without wings remain in maize fields while those with wings migrate to adjacent fields to continue the infestation.

Brooks said the influx of greenbugs does not pose any particular threat to gardens or lawns in the city, since they prefer to feed on wheat, sorghum or corn.

While the greenbugs pose no threat in the city, they have caused considerable consternation among those area farmers who planted sorghum this summer.

One farmer reported the greenbug infestation is among the worst of recent years and said some maize farmers have had to spray for control of the aphids several times already.

Joe Turpin, who farms north of Canyon, reported, though, that the infestation is not any worse than in years past.

Summer Sensations Theme Of WT Study

"Summer Sensations" is the theme for fun and valuable learning experiences involving some 23 pre-school children and 36 college students participating in a practicum class for students in early childhood education who are seeking kindergarten endorsement.

The summertime demonstration class is sponsored by the College of Education in the Department of Elementary Education field with Donna Prather, instructor in early childhood education, as the director.

Classroom activities include studies of insects, butterflies, seeds, trees, plants, birds, foods, water play, ecology and many other segments of early childhood training with the 23 students participating from 9 a.m. to 12:15 daily through August 15.

The class includes young children, aged 4 and 5, who are the children of university students, instructors and professors, as well as pre-schoolers from Canyon, Amarillo and neighboring communities.

Two experienced teachers in the kindergarten field are working directly with the 36 university students involved in the summer demonstration class. Overseeing the program with the director are demonstration class instructors Mrs. Betsy Singleton, director of the Opportunity School in Amarillo, and Mrs. Patsy Fairchild.

Discussed as favorite activities for the children were making collages from colored grains and seeds and decorating cookie faces by making hair from colored coconut, as well as making peanut shell and cheerio jewelry, and guessing what fruit or vegetable matches which seed.

The students shared tree seeds from their own backyards and brought to class some products derived from trees such as paper, wooden toys, fruit, and had a match the leaf type project with their instructors aiding the identification process with a guide book.

In the learning segment about seeds and plants it was noted that the knowledge of children in the Panhandle about the total process of wheat growing and becoming bread is not a new thing even to the young.

Storytime is a treat for Canyon youngsters including, from left, James Stevens (son of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Stevens), Teresa Rivas (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rivas) and Tracy Yandell (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron L. Burglars Hit Again

Burglars hit two more rural residences Sunday afternoon bringing to 12 the number of farm homes burglarized in Randall County since July 21.

Chief Deputy Recil Johnson said burglars hit the mobile home of Charles Duncan about a half mile south of 34th on Soncy Road in the north part of the county between 10:30 a.m. and 1:15 p.m. Sunday.

He said the home of Mrs. John Minkie, which is located just south of the Duncan home, was also burglarized Sunday.

Gaining entrance to both homes through broken window and door panes, the burglars took more than $1700 in government retirement checks, according to Johnson.

He said Duncan reported missing a set of encyclopedias, several watches and rings, several old coins, a tape recorder, a .25 caliber automatic pistol, and $550 in retirement checks belonging to him and $1200 in retirement checks he had been saving for Mrs. Minkie who Johnson said had been on vacation.

Mrs. Minkie reported no missing articles although her house was rifled by the burglars, Johnson said.

Burglars hit 10 other farm homes since July 21 in the north part of the county and deputies believe the burglaries have been the work of the same person or persons.

Johnson said Tuesday he has few solid leads in solving the crimes.

Bobby Jenkins (son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenkins, 1006 5th Avenue) has an indepth discussion on "leaves and trees" with Mrs. Louis (Patsy) Fairchild as a part of the early childhood education class at West Texas State University.

Buffs Get Turf

The West Texas State University Buffaloes will be playing on turf almost as durable and comfortable as the artificial variety when they joust in Kimbrough Stadium this fall thanks to the local Soil Conservation Service.

Bill Casteel, local district conservationist, said a good stand of African bermuda grass has taken hold on the Buffalo playing field and should prove to be a resilient turf for the football players.

Athletic Director Gene Mayfield has been working on a good stand of grass on the playing field since early in 1971 when the field had only a smattering of grass.

Mayfield turned to the SCS for help and the SCS recommended that Tufcoat Bermuda grass be sprigged. The grass is a South African import and Casteel said it has been tested to perform well at low temperatures.

The grass was planted and now the field is said to be in good shape for the upcoming season, Casteel said.

Loudder Injured

Former City Manager George Loudder of Canyon was injured late Saturday or early Sunday in a car accident outside of Duluth, Minn.

Mrs. Loudder said her husband had flown to Duluth Saturday afternoon for an Economic Development Administration conference and had rented a car.

She said Loudder, who is executive director of the Panhandle Regional Planning commission, was pinned in the wreckage for some time before he was taken to a Duluth hospital. Also injured in the wreck was Billie Taylor of the PRPC.

Loudder suffered a severely broken ankle and face laserations, Mrs. Loudder said.

He is expected to return to Canyon this week end, she said.

Bike Races Out

Directors of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce Monday night voted to cease sponsorship of the annual bicycle races around the downtown square.

In the past the bike races have been held in late August or September.

Directors also voted to hire Peggy Hodges, a West Texas State University student, as chamber secretary to aid Roland Black, chamber manager.

They set Sept. 8 as a special meeting to which all chamber members will be invited.

WILLIE BUTLER, JOANN Reynolds and I helped work the Beefathon on Sunday for Multiple Sclerosis. Bill and Clemi Blackburn were there as always - and a cousin, J. D. Pepper. Bedford Forrest came over and shook our hand and visited for a while.

The volunteer workers included Amarillo Jaycees and Jaycee-Ettes, Perryton Jaycee-Ettes, CowBelles from Amarillo, Happy and Oldham County, ESA Sorority and News media.

MONDAY, I ATTENDED a Texas Executive Meeting of CowBelles at Texas Cattle Feeders. Right after lunch, I ran into Jan Cosmos, a writer for "Chute Five".

Carnival Saturday

A children's carnival will be held Saturday afternoon, August 9, in the backyard of Quinell Newman's home at Rt. 4, 225 Bordeaux (near McCormick Road) with funds from the afternoon of fun going to the Multiple Sclerosis Fund. The children's carnival will be held from 1:30 to 4 p.m.

Canyon Schools To Open Soon

Parents of Canyon school children have only a little over a week to wrap up summer activities and begin gathering records for the opening of the fall term on Aug. 20.

Mrs. Ruth Holladay, secondary curriculum coordinator for the district, said teachers will report for their first school day on Tuesday and will begin the year with an open house from 8 to 9 a.m. of the new central administration building.

Throughout the day Tuesday and for the remainder of next week, the teachers will be in workshops, meetings and other in-service sessions to prepare for the opening of school.

Registration begins Aug. 18. Elementary school children in grades kindergarten through six with last names beginning with A-K register at their schools from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. Aug. 18. Elementary school children whose last names begin with L-Z register from 1 to 4 p.m. the same day.

Mrs. Holladay said new students or students just beginning school here in kindergarten or first grade should bring copies of their birth certificates to the registration procedure. Any student who cannot register at the scheduled time should make arrangements with the school principal for a time prior to the registration date.

She said all students should have on record doctor certification of at least one dosage of DPT since their fourth birthday and one dosage of polio vaccine since the fourth birthday. Any child up to the age of 12 must have evidence of a rebeola immunization and rubella immunization.

Junior and senior high students must have complete health records on file also.

Seventh graders at the junior high begin registration from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Aug. 18.

Eighth graders register from 1 to 3:30 p.m. Aug. 18 and ninth graders register from 9 to 11 a.m. Aug. 19th.

Seniors register at the high school from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. and 1 to 4 p.m. Aug. 18. Juniors register from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. Aug. 19 and sophomores register from 1 to 4 p.m. Aug. 19.

New students at Canyon High School should make arrangements with Counsellor Carroll Killingsworth for early registration, Mrs. Holladay said. His office is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the high school building.

For the third year in a row, the Canyon Police Department has received the Pedestrian Safety Citation from the American Automobile Association. Jesse Booth, office manager of the department, is shown with the plaque designating the fact that there have been no pedestrian fatalities on Canyon streets for the past three years.

Workshops Attended

Vocational education instructors at Canyon High School attended In-Service Educational Workshops in Houston and Dallas July 28 through Aug. 1.

Vocational agriculture teachers, Richard Porter and Ronnie Hargrove were among approximately 1,500 ag teachers from across the state attending the five-day meeting.

Jerry Bigham, Distributive Education coordinator at CHS, was also in Houston along with Vocational Office Education instructor Georgia Lee.

Meeting in Dallas, six homemaking teachers from CHS and Canyon Junior High attended the in-service workshops. Cathy Cameron, Janet Fincher, Mary Harrison, Janet Laycock, Janet Sargent and Loyce Sullivan met with other homemaking teachers from throughout the state.

Wallace Busteed, Industrial Cooperative Training instructor at CHS, and Stephen Griener, Building Maintenance instructor at CJHS, are attending workshops on the campus of Texas A&M this week.

According to Dr. Ken Hart, director of vocational education, the in-service workshops help the teachers keep up with their teaching skills and new teaching innovations in their fields.

Historical Markers To Be Set Near Happy

Two official Texas Historical Markers will be placed on U.S. 87 near Happy commemorating the Harman-Toles Elevator and Old Happy.

Judge Jack Driskill of Swisher County and Randall County Judge Woody Pond made the announcement of the erection of the markers this week.

The markers, made of cast aluminum with Swedish steel effect, are sponsored by the Randall and Swisher County historical societies.

The Texas Historical Commission marks local historical sites and landmarks as part of its program of preservation. The names and locations of the new markers will appear in the next edition of the "Guide to Official Texas Historical Markers" to stimulate tourist travel in the area.

The marker for the site of Old Happy will say:

"The Hugh Currie family home, 'Happy Hollow' (built 1891, near this site), was for many years only house on Amarillo-Tulia freight and stage lines. Settlers got mail and freight here. The U.S. Postal Department cut name to 'Happy' for the Post Office. The town moved (2 mi w) to Santa Fe line, 1906."

The marker for the Harman-Toles elevator, which will be on a windmill north of the Happy city limits on U.S. 87, will read:

"Holland E. Toles (1894-1941) opened a grain elevator in this area in 1926, and was joined by Vernon Harman in 1938. After Toles' death, Harman formed a new partnership with John F. and Holl Ed Toles. World War II, increased irrigation, and a federal grain program created a need for larger storage facilities. On March 1, 1945, construction was begun on this six-unit concrete elevator. Labor was provided by the U.S. Government, utilizing 50 Italian prisoners of war from a camp near Hereford, under Geneva Convention provisions. The project was completed on July 10, 1945."

Band Rehearsals Beginning Tonight

Summer band rehearsals for Canyon High School band students begin with a full band rehearsal tonight, August 7, from 7:30 to 9 p.m. at the school band hall.

Sophomore band rehearsals are set on Friday and Saturday from 9-11 a.m. and the full band will be rehearsing evenings a number of times prior to the opening of school. The full rehearsal schedule will be posted for students at the band hall, according to J.W. King, director, as well as the fitting schedule and uniform requirements for band students.

The fall season will be opened with a "Howdy Party" for all high school band members Sunday, August 10, at Conner Park at 6 p.m. The party is being sponsored by the band officers and Canyon Band Parents and will include refreshments, complimentary swimming, and other games and activities.

Bank's Art Appreciation Series Presents Student Artworks Here

Artworks by a number of local students of Ann Palmer, art instructor, will be presented in the continuing art appreciation series sponsored by the First National Bank of Canyon.

Student art will be on display at the bank during business hours from August 11-22. Works on display will feature beginning art students who have been studying with Mrs. Palmer since last October. With the exception of two enameling art students, none of the class had taken previous art instruction.

Mrs. Palmer holds an all-level art teaching certificate and Master of Arts degree from West Texas State University and served as a graduate assistant at the university for two years.

Works featured in the exhibit will include paintings by Linda Bourn, Sie Rogers, Ann Thomason, Harriet Brandon, Jane Stephens, Joan McCasland, Barbara Coleman, Shirley White, Joyce Flenniken and Marilyn Johnson.

Enamel works will be shown by Anita Low and Velma Craig and student works will be shown by Marcie Ferguson and Linda Ramaekers, ninth grade students, and Susan Coleman, a sixth grade student.

Display frames were loaned by the Frame House in Canyon for the student exhibit.

George McBrides Have Infant Son

Mr. and Mrs. George McBride of 5325 W. 42nd, Amarillo, announce the birth of a son, Landon Wade, July 20 at High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo.

The baby weighed 7 pounds, 12 ounces and measured 20½ inches at birth. The McBrides also have a daughter, Fanchon.

Grandmothers of the infant are Mrs. Kenneth Lovell of Dalhart and Mrs. Kelli McBride of Canyon. The great grandmother, Mrs. Giangregorio arrived from Italy, to visit at the occasion of the birth and for a summer visit.

WT Prof To Attend Convention

Mrs. Willie J. McCall, West Texas State University assistant professor of business education, will attend the International Platform Association convention in Washington, D.C. through Aug. 11. The convention will be televised by NBC.

She will hear such notables as columnists Jack Anderson and Art Buchwald, consumer advocate Ralph Nader and CIA Director William Colby debate the current issues and the most pressing problems facing the nation today.

John Goffman, one of the nation's leading experts on nuclear energy, and Thomas Nemzek, director of research and development for the Energy Resources Development Agency, will speak on the dangers of nuclear power.

Also present will be the nation's vice-presidental candidates, along with U.S. congressmen, national columnist James Kilpatrick and psychic Jeane Dixon.

Current issues to be discussed include gun control, abortion, sending American food abroad, the Arab-Israeli conflict and insurance rates.

A creative programming institute for lecturer — programmers, and program chairmen has been set up, in addition to a judging of the National Junior Speaking Championship winners for the top prize.

Mrs. McCall will also find time to work on her research, funded through a WTSU Organized Research Grant, on opportunities for women and training programs available to prepare them for jobs in secretarial and management fields.

Two Plead Guilty On Pot Charge

Two West Texas State University students pleaded guilty to possession of marijuana Monday after sheriff's deputies found 35 of the illegal plants growing in cups and pails at their home south of Canyon.

Chief Deputy Recil Johnson said Janis Lea Bradshaw, 19, of Chilicothe, and Richard Lee Butts, 20, of Quanah, were arrested at the home about a half mile south of Dreamland Cemetery on U. S. 87 by deputies about 9 p.m. Sunday.

He said an informant's call lead to the arrests.

County Judge Woody Pond fined both students $147 each and sentenced them to 30 days in county jail but probated the latter sentence for six months.

Two Amarillo men were injured, neither seriously, in a two-pickup crash about 2:50 p.m. Tuesday on the 15th Street overpass in north Canyon. Jack Leon Mathis, 40, of Amarillo, and Paul Odell Putman, 45, of Amarillo, driver and passenger respectively of one pickup, were treated at Palo Duro Hospital and released. Melba Kelley Stevens, 23, of Canyon, was uninjured in the wreck which occurred on the west-bound access road of U. S. 60 and its intersection with 15th Street.

Program was a discussion of the upcoming Canyon Community Concert Series presented by Nell Findley of that organization.

proved a new policy for use in the high school.

The policy, recommended for implementation by Principal John Sommer, calls for students with good attendance to be exempted from final exams during each quarter.

The policy will apply only to the high school and will be in forde on a trial basis for the 1975-76 school year only.

Sommer and Admin. Asst. Willie McAlpin told board members they felt the new policy would improve the attendance situation at the high school, which last year averaged about 93 per cent attendance.

School attendance is important this year, according to McAlpin, because state funding of the local system is based on student attendance.

The policy states:

Any student who (1) has not been absent from class more than once and/or tardy more than twice since the beginning of the quarter, (2) has not committed a major disciplinary infraction during the quarter, (example: unexcused absence), and (3) is passing the course at the time of the examination, may be exempt from taking the quarter examination in the course. The student may elect to take the examination, regardless of its effect on the final average.

This policy recognizes any absence from class as applicable except an absence because of school-sponsored trips, which does not apply.

Students who are exempt from taking examinations are not required to attend school during the period in which tests are administered.

specific utility operation.

"We don't think there's a need for the ordinance," Biggers said. "This will botch up the books and make the whole thing more difficult."

Bill Lampe, vice president for Pioneer, voiced the same opinion.

Lampe contended, however, that the ordinance proposed by McMorries would be in contravention to state law as it now exists and as it will exist Sept. 1 when the new state law goes into effect.

"We see no reason for the ordinance at all," he said.

Lampe suggested that if the city feels the need to regulate the utilities it should pass the state law which goes into effect Sept. 1, as its regulatory ordinance.

Mayor Bryan suggested Pioneer officials meet with McMorries and City Attorney Elton Cox to work out specific item-by-item objections to the ordinance for perusal at another later meeting.

In other business, commissioners approved an $84,000 payment to Paige and Wirtz Construction Co. for work completed during July on the new civic center complex.

The complex is to be completed in October.

Terry Pittman of Canyon was appointed to replace Larry Hooper on the Canyon Housing Authority. Hooper had resigned earlier this summer.

Commissioners voted to increase the water deposit rate from $10 to $20 beginning Tuesday.

City Manager Glen Metcalf suggested the hike in the deposit to cover delinquent water bills left unpaid and uncovered by the previous deposit.

Commissioners also okayed the allocation of $654 to the Canyon Ambulance Service for new radio equipment. Randall County commissioners approved similar funding during their meeting a week ago.

Mayor Bryan suggested the item be approved.

Commissioners approved a request from Southwestern Public Service Co. for 19 per cent increase in electricity for street lighting in the city.

Local Manager Joe Gidden explained that the new contract, which will cover 10 years but which will allow for frequent price renegotiations, includes a cost-of-fuel adjustment. He said the hike was necessitated to put the company on a break-even basis on the street lighting.

An ordinance granting T.D. Austin of Amarillo a franchise to operate a cable television firm in Canyon was passed on final reading.

Austin has about two years to establish a system or lose the franchise.

experienced in 1973 — and this area didn't make them — they were large windfall profits and they're not going to develop like this anymore because the government won't allow it. They'll slap export restrictions on you and you can't afford that."

According to the Texas Wheat Producers Association in Amarillo, farmers are now being offered about $3.60 to $3.70 per bushel for this year's wheat crop.

Paintings On Display

More than 80 paintings from the Coppini Academy of Fine Arts will be on display in the art galleries of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum until August 31.

The wide variety of techniques and subjects from more than 50 artists are offered for sale, and fill the museum's north and south art galleries, with a special show of watercolors in the lecture room.

The display includes works by artists Dwight Holmes, James Lemons, Lonnie Mason, Leona Turner and Olive Bugbee.

The purpose of the Coppini Academy is to foster a better acquaintance and understanding between artists and patrons, to encourage worthy accomplishment in the field of art, and to serve as a means of public exhibition for members' work and other works of art.

The academy was founded in 1945 under the name of the Classic Arts Fraternity by the internationally-known sculptor Pompeo Coppini. The name was changed to the current one to honor its founder in 1950. The non-profit organization has more than 150 members, and is centered in San Antonio.

The academy's artists have been featured in shows at the museum for many years.

Wedding Gifts Are Presented

Receiving guests with Miss Wesley was her mother, Mrs. Luther Wesley of Canyon; Mrs. Elmer Haralson of Wellington, mother of the prospective bridegroom; and Lela Haralson, grandmother of the prospective bridegroom.

The bride-elect's chosen colors of blue and white were featured on the refreshment table which was laid with a hand crocheted lace cloth over blue and accented with summer flowers in shades of blue with blue tapers flanking.

Co-hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames Marvin Salmon, Edward Szydloski, A. B. Berry, Doris Gillham, O.C. Free, Doice Flowers, Jack Parsons, G.T. Collier, Clarence Howard, Harry Green, Ray Fullerton and J.A. Edwards.

Miss Wesley and her fiance are making plans for marriage vows to be exchanged August 23 in Wellington.

The city of Canyon can say it has its share of top Junior golfers. Above, Tim Kinkade, Jerry Allen and Bryan Garner have qualified for the upcoming Tournament of Champions to be held Aug. 13-14 on the Odessa Country Club course. Not pictured, but also a qualifier is Bill Turner.

Four Qualify For Tournament

Four junior golfers from Canyon have qualified for the Tournament of Champions to be held Aug. 13-14 in Odessa.

To be eligible for the tourney, members of the West Texas Junior PGA Tour must win one or more of the 10 tournaments held throughout the summer.

The Canyon qualifying foursome include Tim Kinkade, Jerry Allen, Bill Turner and Bryan Garner.

Kinkade, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dude Kinkade, qualified for the Tournament of Champions by winning the Junior PGA tournament held in Hereford July 8. His winning 18-hole total was 88.

Jerry Allen, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Allen, shot a 76 in the Floydada tournament held July 9. Allen tied for first and went on to win the tournament championship in the first hole of the playoff.

Bryan Garner, 16, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gary Garner, qualified for the Tournament of Champions but also qualified for the Texas State PGA Junior Tournament that is to be held at the same time. Garner has opted to play in the state tourney.

Bill Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Turner became eligible for the Odessa tournament when he shot a winning 73 in Borger July 31. Turner is 17 years of age.

tinues to take its toll.

"This right-of-way is going to cost the county more every day," he said.

Judge Pond told commissioners county hospitalization insurance rates are to rise in the near future by about $7.50 per employee and $11.50 per dependent. The price hike, he said, will be borne by the county.

Commissioner Dee Griffin was given the task of evaluating the price hike proposals from Republic National Insurance Co.

Commissioners discussed the sale of their South Amarillo courthouse annex on South Bowie Street, an annex which will be replaced when construction is complete on the new annex at Georgia and the Canyon expressway.

Time Rolls By Before You Know It

By DORIS McKEE

ANOTHER WEEK HAS just passed us by and it won't be too long before we are starting to look for the little ole bearded man in a fancy red suit.

Gosh, when you really think about it, it's only a little over four months, and it will be here and gone. Oh well, first things first. I have been doing some checking and much to my surprise, a lot of the kids are ready for school to start. Of course, a lot more of us Mom's are even readier. So in about three weeks from now, maybe everyone will be happy.

BEING A MEMBER of the Gene Howe PTA board this year, enabled me to attend a very enjoyable coffee for the new and old board members, this past Thursday morning at the home of Karolyn Farmer.

WE WISH TO express our concern for a couple of park residents, who have recently been in the hospital. First off, Pat Reed entered High Plains Baptist on July 20th and had surgery the following morning. She was allowed to come home on July 31st and is progressing pretty well.

Thursday afternoon, July 31st Diana Hoffman entered Palo Duro Hospital in Canyon and underwent minor surgery the following morning. She came home on Sunday, August 3rd and is doing fine.

We wish both of you very speedy recoveries.

MY FAMILY WAS very happy to have a short visit last week from my brother, R.H., his wife, Helen, and daughter, Judy. They arrived quite unexpectedly, but we accept company anytime we can get it.

Their two sons, Timmy and Rodney were visiting in the Winfred Dollar home in Amarillo for the past week and R.H. had came to retrieve them. We visited several hours before they went on into Amarillo.

MR. AND MRS. Marvin R. Stiles who lived at 139 Siesta Lane, have left us this past week. They were going to Tennessee.

Also the Jim Blue family have sold their mobile home and moved to Lubbock this weekend.

We wish these two families the best in their new ventures.

JON AND DIANA Hoffman drove over to Clinton, Okla. last Sunday, where they met Jon's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hoffman of Kiowa, Kansas. The purpose of the meeting was the return of one small daughter, Christy who had been visiting her grandparents this summer.

Jon and Diana are very happy to have Christy home and are looking forward to regaining their son, Marty in the next week or so. He has also been in Kansas all summer.

AND NOW I would like to share our trip to San Antonio and Corpus Christi with you. Royce, Tod, DeAnn and myself loaded the car and took off early (12:30 a.m.) Thursday morning, July 24th with San Antonio as our first destination.

After driving straight thru, we arrived in S.A. at 12:00 noon. We immediately proceeded to find a motel room and made us a sandwich from the cooler, after which a certain member of our party (namely Royce) took a nap. I made a phone call to the home of Bob and Hershey Crumley, an aunt and uncle.

Our main purpose to be in S.A. at this time was to attend the annual Crumley reunion of which the Bob Crumley's were the working host and hostess this year.

Our reunion is always a large affair, that covers a couple of days and nights at least. This year the first thing on the agenda was a gathering of persons, at the home of Bob and Hershey for a back yard supper on Thursday night July 24th. Everything was set up beautifully and just shortly before they were ready to serve, you guessed it, down came the rain. But we didn't let this interfere. The den was cleared and the tables brought in and set up there and out under the carport. Everything went on as planned. There was lots of delicious food including a smoked turkey, ham and brisket. There were 34 people present for this first get together.

Friday was a free day so my family spent it sightseeing in San Antonio which is a very beautiful city and has lots to offer. We went to Hemisfair 68 Plaza, the Alamo, Brackenridge Park, the zoo, Sunken Gardens, Ft. Sam Houston and took a walk down the Riverwalk. It was getting late in the afternoon by this time and we returned to the motel to clean up and dress for the second get together of the reunion which was a very enjoyable and thrilling venture.

We all met at Casa Rio Mexican Restaurant downtown on the San Antonio River. Our bunch loaded onto three barges, the Chula, the Marta and the Dolores, where we were served a delicious Mexican dinner, as we rode down the river. The clan had grown some by now and there were 52 attending this get together.

Saturday morning, July 26th the clan began to gather around 8:00 a.m. in McArthur Park in pavilion 4. Breakfast was served between 8 and 10 and at 9:30 the hats were passed and everyone drew for partners. This was for everyone who wished to participate in the games; horseshoes, washers, badminton, and croquet. The games started at approximately 10 a.m. and the winners were determined by about 5 p.m.

Trophies were awarded Sunday morning. After lunch everyone went fishing (for gag prizes mostly) and the white elephant game was played. Each family brought a wrapped gift, for each member who wanted to play. Everyone drew a number and picked prizes accordingly. Tod had number one and got first pick off the huge table of items. He made a lucky pick and came home with a bicycle carrier.

After this the kids played Crazy 8 for the trophy and at 5:30 the magician arrived to put on a 45 minute magic show for the kids. Of course there were lots of big kids (adults) who watched right along.

The evening reunion meal consisted of salads of all kinds, baked beans, hot buttered french bread, and barbecued steak. All kinds of cakes and bunches of fresh peaches. After supper there were some special awards presented.

First award was a beautiful engraved plaque presented to Ermal Crumley Haunschild of Ada, Okla. for 25 years of Research into Crumley Genealogy. And a plaque was given her husband, which was inscribed to "Big Ed, for Patience, Tolerance and Support of Ancestry Research." Ermal and Ed had worked hard to compile all their findings into a printed and bound book titled, "The Crumleys of Frederick County, Virginia and Greene County, Tennessee." With all their work they had compiled 9 generations, several pictures, wills, deeds, ancestoral charts; homestead certificates and several other things. The book was dedicated to Ed (Edward Robert Wilhelm Haunschild), husband of Ermal with this inscription under his picture, "Who Has Made This Work a Reality and a Pleasure."

Diane Robbins of Lubbock was awarded a plaque for 10 years research into Crumley Genealogy and her husband, Ted also received the Patience, tolerance and support plaque.

Burney Crumley then went to the microphone and presented a beautifully engraved plaque to Bob and Hershey Crumley, commending them for all their work support and help in seeing that each year's reunion goes over the very best it can.

Then it was my turn. I had made an award for Bob, who has been retired for a couple of years now, but his wife, Hershey, still works, so he does things around the house and all. The award I gave was for 1975 house husband of the year. I also gave Hershey a small trophy which read "Betcha a million, you're one in a billion." She always backs him no matter what. Now it was time to set up the tables for Mexican dominoes. There were 12 tables and everyone wanted to make it to the head table and stay there, but of course only two could win. It was lots of fun even though I started at table 10 and never got past table 7. This ended Saturday's activities. There were 80 persons turned out a pavilion 2 in the park for breakfast. After everyone had eaten it was time for the story telling contest. There were 11 brave people who told wild tales. After they had finished the judging took place and the winners were picked.

It was then time to present the trophies and winners were: Crazy 8, Sandy Crumley of San Antonio, Washers, Big Ed of Ada, Okla. and Patsy Crumley of San Gabriel, Calif., Badminton, Otis Crumley of San Gabriel, Calif. and Linda Richards, Mexican dominoes, Ted Robbins of Lubbock and Horace Crumley of San Marcos, Story telling, Edith Perkins, of Hugo, Okla. 1st place and John Crumley Doremeus of Deerfield, Ill. 2nd place, Horseshoes and croquet, Geron Crumley of Paris and Marvin Crumley of Flint, Texas. And a lovely trophy to Big Ed Haunschild, Ada, Okla. as the biggest eater.

We had people from Amarillo, Canyon, Lubbock, Snyder, Paris, Flint, San Angelo, Hermleigh, Dallas, Austin, Richardson, Kerrville, Garland, New Braunfels and San Antonio in Texas and from Ada, Hugo, Wewoka, and Sapulpa in Okla. Luke, Ida and Shelly Crumley of Forest Grove, Oregon, Otis and Patsy Crumley of San Gabriel, Calif. Burney and Carrie Crumley of Phoenix, Ariz. Jerry and Jean Crumley of Benton, Ark. and John Doremeus and daughter DeDe of Deerfield, Ill.

By 1 p.m. everyone had loaded up and gone in all directions. It was a great reunion.

One other thing, most everyone wore red shirts and several had "Annual Crumley Reunion" printed on the back and their name over the front left pocket. The lettering was done in different colors to show which Crumley family you sprang from.

A spot has not been chosen yet for next year, but it appears the Canyon, Amarillo area is in the running. If you really want to have a marvelous couple of days, just change your name to Crumley, get yourself a red shirt and join us next July.

WE LEFT S.A. around 1 p.m. Sunday heading on to Corpus Christi and arrived there about 3:30 to look the city over. We then took the Ocean side drive out to Padre Island, where we stopped at a beach area and waded in the ocean. It was getting late by then so we found a motel, rested a little, then took another look at the city.

On Monday we got up, loaded the car and looked some more. At noon we ate sea food and proceeded to the beach for an afternoon of playing in the ocean and the sand. Around seven we drove over to Port Aransas. We were quite awed by the way the houses and some businesses were built up on posts. We took the ferry across and drove to Aransas Pass, where we saw bunches of fishing boats docked for the night. We were lucky enough to see several large ships while in and around Corpus.

We had a beautiful drive back into Corpus at dusk. All the lights were on as we came over the Harbor Bridge. After spending the night in Corpus we left for home Tuesday morning. Straight thru again, we arrived at Siesta about midnight. Home sure looked good, but we really had, had a great time.

HOPEFULLY PAT REED will be feeling up to telling me all about her and Tex's vacation trip this week. She didn't get time to tell me as they came home Sunday July 19th and she entered the hospital on Monday the 20th. We'll get it yet.

We had visitors this weekend. Royce's sister, Lavera Buckalew of Lubbock and friend, John Garrett, came Saturday afternoon. They brought Sherry and Kellie (her two oldest daughters) so they can spend this week with us. Lavera and John ate supper with us and visited several hours before starting their return trip to Lubbock.

IT IS TIME for me to sign off for this week, but if my pencil holds out I'll be here next week, same time, same place with all the goings ons here at Siesta, so , keep on reading.

Thought for this week, "Be ye kind, for kindness is a gesture well worth the effort."

See ya.

Farmer Brown of Canyon and a group from the Canyon area just returned from a fishing trip in northern New Mexico where they fished the Chama River country, particularly Lake Heron and Lake El Vonda. Other members of the Brown party also had success with the fish. Ruth Brown, Kyle Paris, and Irene Hardaway of Happy display the rainbow trout they caught at Lake Heron. Kyle is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Latham of Canyon. Included in the party were the Browns, John Hardaways, Johnnie McBrooms, Harry Hardaways, Foster Harmons and Fred Lathams.

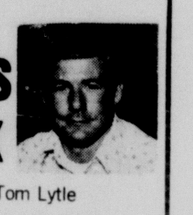
TEXAS TALK



By Tom Lytle

Newcomer to the crowd is the Zapper. The "crowd" is the continuing deluge of technological innovations being utilized by the American farmer. Among the observable effects of this wave of modernity are the following; the new commercial cotton flour processing plant at Lubbock, soybean cheese experiments at Iowa State University, new hybrid wheat developments, new farm equipment . . . and the Zapper. Testing is continuing, but the initial results are interesting if not down right exciting for the most unique system of weed control since the hoe. Emitting a high energy microwave transmission directly into the soil . . . or Zapping it . . . has proven in a variety of tests to be an effective control device for weeds. All the side effects seem to be beneficial. First there are no harmful environmental factors and those involved in testing the zapper report a definite improvement in crop performance in the zapped soil. Welcome to the crowd, Zapper.

PTA Workers Ready For School Term

By KAROLYN FARMER

WELL, THIS WEEK I've tried wiggling my nose like Samantha. The only puff of smoke that appeared was when I opened the oven door after burning the roast.

I rubbed my "magic lantern," which is actually an old hurricane lamp that was stored in the attic. No genie came out, but I did have to clean off the rest of the dust that had accumulated.

I waved my magic wand, which was really a plastic fly swatter. Nothing happened then either! (Or almost nothing — I did knock a jelly glass off of the kitchen cabinet and had to clean that up).

Finally in desperation I "plunked my magic twanger." (I'm just barely old enough to remember "Buster Brown" on the radio). Not only did Froggy the Gremlin fail to appear — but I broke my only long fingernail and now I can't scratch all my mosquito bites.

Alas! The dishes didn't wash themselves, the typewriter didn't mysteriously type this week's column — and my family didn't even notice I'd used fabric softener in their clothes.

I guess there's just no substitute for hard work — is there? ? ?

AND SPEAKING OF hard work, the Gene Howe PTA Board for this year is now making preparations for the beginning of a new school year. Members of both the new and old boards met at my house last week for a little coffee and a lot of talk — all of it about school business, of course.

Those attending were Ernestine Harp, Troyce Mulherin, Sandra Wait, Sarah Edwards, Janette Hale, Jackie Mayfield, Marion Marrs, Georgia Sorrells, Linda Ford, Sherrie Cates, Doris McKee, Phyllis Hicks and Farris Ann Morrison.

Farris Ann has been newly appointed to the board this summer and will be serving as Publications Chairman this next year.

Actually, to be completely truthful, the meeting wasn't all business. We learned that Farris Ann is now taking flying lessons so that she can join her husband Lewis as his official co-pilot.

Troyce Mulherin also explained how to use Saran Wrap and a certain exercise to lose weight. (And you'll have to ask her to explain it to you, too).

We really are lucky to have so many talented and enthusiastic women serving on the PTA Board and we're all looking forward to a great year.

PAT STEVENS, WHO teaches second grade at Gene Howe, has really had a busy summer. She and her husband have just returned from visiting their daughters, Mrs. Richard (Lynn) Frazier and Mrs. James (Demaris) Brown.

Lynn Frazier lives in Huntsville and has two daughters, Lessie and Mandy. Mandy celebrated her 5th birthday on August 4th. Lessie, who is 8 years old, returned home with her grandparents for a visit. Richard Frazier teaches music at Sam Houston University in Huntsville.

Demaris Brown lives in Fort Worth. Her husband is now attending a training school in New York City for the Olivetti Corporation.

Fifty-five members of Pat Stevens' family were in Canyon this past Sunday for a family reunion which was held at the Deene Donnell home.

One of the most exciting and rewarding things that has happened to Pat this summer is that she finished her work on her Master's Degree and will receive her degree on August 16th from WT.

CINDY LASELL, ONE of the Gene Howe 5th grade teachers, has also finished her Master's work and will be receiving her degree this week from WT.

Cindy is also working on her Educational Diagnostician Certification. She is taking one course now and will take another course this fall in order to receive the certification.

THE HERITAGE WOMAN'S Club is planning a Tupperware party to be held September 4th in the Canyon Girl Scout House. Everyone is invited to attend.

Club members will begin taking pre-party orders for the Tupperware beginning next week. You may contact Darlene Plank at 352-9393 or Darlene Hollabaugh at 655-4020. The proceeds from the party will be used for the club's convention expenses.

THE MEMBERS OF the Heritage Woman's Club will be continuing work on their Bicentennial Quilt Project throughout this year. If you would like your family's name put on the quilt, you may call Darlene Plank, the club's president, or Diana McAtee, 655-4170.

The quilt will be presented to the Canyon Museum when it is completed.

AMY AND MIKE Kennon, the children of Carlton and Charlotte, have been busy visiting grandparents and other relatives this summer. They spent a few days in Plainview with their grandmother, Mrs. J.M. Kennon and their uncle, Jimmy Kennon, and his family.

Amy and Mike also visited with Charlotte's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clayton in Memphis.

Out of town guests in the Kennon home this summer have been Mr. and Mrs. John Fulton and family of Arlington and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Clayton and family of Rustin, La.

Mrs. Fulton and Mr. Clayton are Charlotte's sister and brother.

NOTICE TO FOURTH GRADE BOYS: Coach Ray Myers says that if you plan on playing Kids, Inc. football, then on Monday, August 18th (school registration day), come by the backstop between 2:00 and 3:00 in the afternoon, meet with Mr. Myers, and get your name on the roster.

If you don't make it in time for sign-up, then be sure that you call Mr. Myers and let him know that you want to sign up and play for Gene Howe. Ray Myers' phone number is 355-3934.

Coach Myers is hoping for a big turnout of 4th grade boys this year so that our school will be well represented in their league.

CAROL TIPPS, OUR neighbor to the north, hosted a Home Interiors Party this last week. Of course, I saw lots of gorgeous things and resisted buying most of them — but not all. Wanda Hudgins of Canyon demonstrated all the lovely home accessories and gifts for us. And I really enjoyed getting acquainted with Wanda, too.

Also at the party was Joy (Sibley) Newkirk, who I hadn't seen since our high school days together. Joy and her family have just recently purchased a new home in our area and her children will be attending Gene Howe this fall.

VISITORS IN THE Pat Tipps home this week have been Carol Tipps' mother, Mrs. Marie Morton of Texhoma, Okla. and Carol's sister-in-law and nephew, Saundra and Byron Morton of Los Alamos, N.M. Gary Morton returned to Los Alamos last week after spending several days with the Tipps.

Don and Saundra Morton, Gary, Byron, Mrs. Marie Morton and Jay Tipps recently spent two weeks in Colorado camping out, fishing and exploring.

MRS. JERRY (GERI) Norrod, Lynn, Steve and Paul spent three weeks in and around Lansing, Michigan this summer. They visited with Geri's father, John Bartel, and spent several days in Geri's sister's cottage on one of the Michigan lakes.

Besides attending the wedding of Geri's father and visiting with many relatives, Geri said they also went to Cedar Point Park, which is Michigan's version of Six Flags.

JANETTE, HAROLD AND Jill Hale spent several days last week in Carlsbad, N.M. Besides walking through the Caverns, they toured the museum and enjoyed swimming in the motel pool.

THE 1ST GRADE T-ball team, coached by Larry Cunningham, finished out their ball season by winning their Kids Inc. tournament. The boys defeated teams from Avondale and Western Plateau Schools to take the championship.

The team and their parents capped the season off with a family picnic at their coach's home. After enjoying hot dogs and ice cream, the boys were presented with trophies and Kids, Inc. patches from Coach Cunningham.

The boys also gave their coach a desk to show their appreciation of his hard work this summer.

LARRY AND DONNA Cunningham spent several days in July attending the National Nutritional Foods Association Convention in Las Vegas, Nev.

The Cunninghams are managers of Eat-Rite Health Foods, No. 2 in Amarillo.

Besides the convention activities, Larry and Donna also found time to go to some of the shows in Las Vegas. They particularly enjoyed seeing Andy Williams and Ann Margaret.

Larry said the biggest surprise of the trip was seeing one of his former classmates at Tascosa High School, Ben Lokey, performing as one of the dancers in Ann Margaret's troop.

CAROL HOLLINGSWORTH HAS resigned as kindergarten teacher at Gene Howe. I called Carol to tell her how much we would miss her at school this year and she assured me it's only a temporary retirement.

She plans to spend this year working as a full-time wife and mother, but she does hope to substitute in the kindergarten program at Gene Howe when she's needed.

Carol also told me that she had never been happier in her whole teaching career than she has been at Gene Howe. She said it was definitely the most "loving" school she had taught in and that she really appreciated the great cooperation of the parents.

Carol plans to keep busy this year writing children's stories and she hopes to get some of them published very soon.

She assured me that even though she will miss teaching at Gene Howe, she is very confident that the kindergarten children will be in good hands.

Besides Anita Harp, who has recently been hired as one of the kindergarten teachers, Pam Layman will also be teaching a kindergarten class.

Pam was originally hired to teach kindergarten but because there were not enough children enrolled, she has been teaching 1st grade at Gene Howe.

Of course, we'll all miss Carol, but we're very fortunate to have two such dedicated young women teaching our youngest children.

Bonnie Barrows, a member of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Team, will be the featured speaker at the Christian Women's Club Luncheon next Monday, August 11. The luncheon will begin at 12:00 and will be held in the Tropical Room of the Villa Inn in Amarillo.

Miss Barrows is the daughter of Cliff Barrows, who is also a member of the Billy Graham Team. She is an enthusiastic young woman with a tremendous message for all women.

CHARLENE AND BILL Moore, Rhonda and Gina, along with two other families went to Red River, N.M. this past week for a few days of fun and relaxation. Their activities included riding the ski lift, horseback riding, fishing and just plain visiting.

A LATE HAPPY birthday wish (in writing) to our daughter, Brenda Henry, who celebrated her 15th birthday on Monday, August 4th.

We had fifteen of Brenda's friends over Sunday night after church for a surprise party. They ate cake and ice cream, and the mosquitoes ate them. They were really terrible! (The mosquitoes, not the kids).

I HOPE YOU all enjoy what's left of this very short summer. And in case you try to call me and no one answers, I'll be out in the yard hunting four-leaf clovers.

Rainy Vacations

By REBA RAEF

THERE'S ONLY A few more weeks of vacation left and school will be starting, and with all the rains in this area, several families in our community took advantage of the rains and took trips.

* * *

JOHN AND CAROLYN Beckman and their children and Lydia Mendoza went to the North Fork Creek, near Monument, Colorado and camped out. Carolyn said they did a little fishing but had little luck at that.

Thev hiked all over the mountains and came upon a B-29 that had crashed there during World War 2. She said the campgrounds were very crowded.

They attended a real old church in Vigil, Colo. Carolyn said even though the outside of the church was rather dilapidated, the inside was beautiful.

* * *

DAVE AND LUCILLE Riley and children went to Eagle Nest, New Mexico, last week. Lucille said they first went to Tres Ritos, but found it too crowded, so they went to Eagle Nest.

* * *

LLOYD AND LOUISE Sutton had dinner guests last Sunday. Doris Roush and her family came out from Amarillo. Louise said they enjoyed the fresh vegetables from their big garden.

The Roush children rode the Shetland pony and made friends with the various animals the Sutton's have in their barnyard.

MARION AND SUZY Hicks and boys went to see Milt and Darline Suthers, in Maxwell, New Mexico last week. Suzy said that the day before they got to Maxwell, Milt's brother had brought Milt's boys home, (they had been visiting relatives in Oklahoma for several weeks) and on Saturday morning, Darline had nineteen people there for breakfast.

On Monday, the Hick's went on up to the Bruce Spruce Ranch near Pagosa Springs, Colorado to visit the Craig Hingers. It rained while they were there, so the mountains were nice and cool.

* * *

MR. AND MRS. Ben Buecker have company from Germany. Mrs. Buecker's nephew and his wife, Heinz and Edel Senger, from Overhagen in Westfalen are here for four weeks.

Bernard came home last weekend to see them. They will visit with the other Buecker children, too.

* * *

MRS. MARY PERRY, from Goff, Kansas is here visiting Charley and Katherine Beckman for several weeks. She came down with two of her daughters, Mrs. Joan Wingender and her children and Mrs. Mary Alice Russell. Mrs. Parry is Katherine's sister.

THE C.Y.O. RETURNED recently from a four day trip to the Bruce Spruce Ranch in Colorado. We talked with Lillian Friemel, one of the chaperones and she said it had not rained there and it was hot and the mosquitoes were real bad. She said it sprinkled on them one evening, but not enough to cool things off.

On the Monday they were there, they went into Durango for a chuck wagon supper and the Western style show that followed. On the way to Durango, they stopped at a little glass blowing factory, run by the owner and two or three helpers. They made all kinds of pretty and unusual things.

Lillian also thinks the young people of the C.Y.O. will make good cooks, as each day's meals were prepared by different committees and she said the food was good.

The other chaperones on the trip were Richard E. Friemel, Charles and Debbie Batenhorst and Elroy and Roberta Artho.

C.Y.O. members who went were Janie and Patricia Batenhorst, Roger Batenhorst, Steve and Jimmy Friemel, Dwayne Hartman, Brian Friemel, Danny, Wade, Gerald and Janet Wilhelm, Sharon, Elaine and Linda Ramaekers, Arlene Koch, Shirley Lindemann, Angeline Haschke, Harold and Patricia Artho, Marianne Wieck and Donna Batenhorst.
